VIII. Old Business

- a. Treasurer position is still open, if interested let us know. We need it filled. Drive to strive to collect signatures and sent to the capital shortly, should've been done a few weeks ago, now march 17th-25th. Trying to get senators to sign, and get them throughout campus and try for the most signatures possible. We as a campus need 500 signatures to be competitively. Capital day: trip to Harrisburg more info TBA

IX. New Business

- a. If you miss 3 or more meetings, you may be removed from senate. The following are on the list and will be voted on next week: café, housing, just do it, SAAB, engineering club, students for justice, surveying society. There are some senators, but that will be announced next week.

X. Open Forum

- a. Motion to vote Scott into senate: Meg- why are you joining now? Scott- I had my petition earlier, but there wasn't quorum. I want to represent the student body and become more involved. Meg- if you could fix one thing on the campus what would it be? Scott- I would need to talk to more of the students to give an answer. Vote: 20-0-1.
- b. Carmen- last year Eric Williams, Jackie, and I tried to plan a trip. Funding was done, it was planned, and we tried to get a location. It was to Gettysburg and tour the battlefield and ghost tours and would be all weekend. If anyone is interested in taking over, please let us know. We would be happy to help.
- c. Dr. Lozano- a few weeks ago I talked to you about interviews for the director of arts position. We made an offer to hire a new director for the fall semester. 2 music courses and 1 art course will be taught by him.
- d. Jackie- looking for student volunteers Friday march 11th at Dallas High School. Penn state day at the elementary read across America. They are bringing in the author that wrote the books about the Nittany Lion.
