VIII. Old Business

Bethany: Are they going to fix the science building door?

Ryan: Once it warms up it’ll fix itself.

Dalton: Can we get window blinds in the AC because we can’t see the PowerPoints when they are on the screen?

Nick: There was a CRC meeting this past week and we are going to reschedule it because no one really showed up.

Ryan: We talked about adding our birthdays to our IDs. They are talking with the one committee about how to do it so hopefully it’ll take effect within the next year.

IX. Open Forum

Carmen: Gettysburg trip is coming up! There is 10-12 spots still open so let me know if you are interested.

Tyler: The surveyors were wondering if the kitchen in the TC can be left open later so students can use it when they are here late.

Kathie: I’ll talk with Gary if we can keep that open for students to use.

Zach: Has anyone talked about fixing the pothole?

Kathie: I’ve talked to Gary about it and he said that they are working on fixing it.

Ryan: For right now they are going to just fill it in.

Katie: There was an email sent out to nominate an outstanding faculty member and club of the year if you can take a few minutes to fill it out that would be great.

Kathie: Also clubs need to submit who's coming to the event.

Megg: Yesterday there was a couple accidents on Hillside Road. Can we find out if they were students and if so can we send them flowers?

Ryan: It was not a student, but they are okay.

Megg: Also the Nerd Herd if hanging out Monday night to make the piñatas for our event if anyone wants to come.
